Nicholas J. Sasso joined Strassburger McKenna Gutnick & Gefsky as an attorney in 2019. He comes to our Firm with a depth of experience having worked with law firms in both Pittsburgh and northwest Arkansas with a focus on the areas of estate planning, tax planning, and special needs planning (including guardianship, estate administrations and Orphans' Court litigation). He also focuses his practice in the area of Medicaid planning.

Mr. Sasso earned his J.D. from Ohio Northern University College of Law and transiently studied law at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, Arkansas. During Mr. Sasso's last semester of law school, he took part in an externship with the Legal Aid of Arkansas as a Rule XV Student Attorney.

Prior to studying law, Mr. Sasso received a music degree from Duquesne University's Mary Pappert School of Music and performed around the world.

Known for his dedication to pro bono work, Mr. Sasso received the Ohio Northern Pro Bono Service Recognition Award in 2011. He also received the Volunteer Attorney of the Year for the 18th Judicial District of Arkansas in 2013 and the Legal Aid of Arkansas Pro Bono Service Award in 2017.

Mr. Sasso was born and raised in Westmoreland County and is excited to be back in his hometown bringing his experience, work ethic and client-focused passion to Pittsburgh.
